

QUALITY

Revathi Ghee's success is in maintaining consistency in manufacturing quality ghee. Ghee quality check is done at every stage of processing. Control measures are followed right from raw material to the final product.

QUALITY TEST

Stringent tests are conducted in each batch of production through various test procedures for best quality before ghee is sent to the market.

PACKAGING

Revathi Ghee is packed in airtight containers and foil sealed to meet international standards. Standing Pouches and Pillow packs are sealed and checked in various steps.

Hygienically processed in a modern plant, Revathi ghee uses only the choicest and purest ingredients. Its traditional recipe gives it a rich aroma, granular texture and homemade taste. Ensuring good health for the entire family.
